FAQ:

How will my book be published?

Your title will be published under the bookvault publishing brand

Are there any hidden costs?

If your title hasn't accumulated £25 worth of print in a year, there will be an optional £10 charge to keep your title live with Nielsen's database

Is there an approval process for you to publish my book?

No! All we ask is that your content falls within our publishing guidelines

How long does the process take?

You can publish your title in as little as 3 working days! This allows time for the proof copy to be printed and shipped to you. Once approved, your title can be available for sale in as little as 10 minutes on The Great British Book Shop

“

I would absolutely recommend bookvault. I used to create my training materials with a lever arch file and hole-punched A4 paper and now, with bookvault, we have books that our vast British and European customer base is hugely impressed with. The speed of turnaround, quality of print and flexibility of the system is exactly what we need – and we can see this being made even better with the introduction of the new bookvault
